

Mark Mazurek

President Linehaul

Mark Mazurek is responsible for Linfox's Linehaul operations across Australia.

Mark oversees the provision of interstate transport by road, rail, sea and air as well as international freight forwarding. These services are available to all Linfox customers, including those in the FMCG, Retail and Industrial Business Units and Linehaul's own customer base.

Linehaul operates intermodal depots in each Australian state and commands a powerful strategic network of freight forwarding centres, ensuring customers benefit from the most efficient logistics options for their needs.

Mark joined Linfox in 2006 as Vice President Wood, Packaging, Print Solutions and Events with responsibility for some of Linfox's major customers. Mark also leads the Foxprintsolutions joint venture print management company established to serve major Australian customers. He joined the Linehaul team in early 2010 as Vice President before being appointed President.

Prior to Linfox Mark worked in various senior local and international roles with major FMCG manufacturers in Sales, Corporate Affairs and Supply Chain roles. Mark has studied at the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology and Harvard Business School.

In his spare time Mark enjoys spending time with his wife and three children. He also enjoys outdoor activities and travelling.
