

Michael Byrne

CEO Linfox Logistics

Michael Byrne has a distinguished logistics career. He was appointed CEO in May 2006 after seven years in leading roles within the company.

As CEO, Michael oversees Linfox operations in 11 countries across the Asia Pacific region. These operations provide work for more than 15,000 people (Full Time Equivalents) and utilise more than 1.8 million square metres of warehouse space and nearly 5,000 vehicles.

Before his appointment as CEO, Michael managed the burgeoning Fast Moving Consumer Goods and Retail sectors of Linfox and implemented Linfox's global management structure in emerging Asian markets.

Michael has a Masters of Science in Transportation and Infrastructure from the University of Denver. He completed management training at the Darden School of Management at the University of Virginia and the International Management Program at the MIT Sloan School of Management, Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Before joining Linfox, Michael was CEO of Westgate Logistics and was a General Manager at Mayne Logistics.

Michael is married to Leah and they have three young children. He enjoys playing and coaching cricket and soccer.
