

Peter Stokes

President Industrial Business Unit

Peter Stokes is responsible for the Industrial Business unit across the Asia Pacific Region and is based in Melbourne.

Peter leads the development of supply chain solutions for customers in three key industry sectors: Petroleum & Chemicals; Metals & Mining; Wood, Packaging, Print Solutions and Event Management.

Prior to joining Linfox Peter was with the resources group at global management consultant Accenture for more than 10 years where he became a partner.

Peter's core expertise is in selling and leading business strategy development programs including supply chain management, operations improvement and strategic business planning.

Peter is a member of the Australasian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy and holds a Western Australian Restricted Quarry Managers ticket.

He enjoys travel and is interested in sailing, snow skiing, rugby and wind surfing. Peter is married with two children.