

Nick Capp

President Retail

Nick Capp is responsible for the Retail Business Unit across the Asia Pacific region.

Nick leads the development of supply chain solutions for customers in three key industry sectors: Food & Liquor, Megastores & Express and Personal & Household.

The Retail Business Unit partners with leading retail customers to drive continuous improvement in their supply chains in the flourishing retail sector across our Asia Pacific region.

Nick joined Linfox in 1993 as an Operations Manager and progressed quickly to senior management roles. Before his appointment as President Retail he was Vice President Retail, Food & Liquor.

Nick spent several years working in Linfox's Asian business as Vice President FMCG Asia Pacific and as Country Operations Director in Thailand.

Nick enhanced his strategic skills by completing his Masters of Science in Management from Stanford, a Postgraduate Diploma in Information Systems and a Bachelor of Business.

Nick enjoys spending time with his wife and two children.
