

Laurie D'Apice

Acting President Human Resources

Laurie is Acting President for the HR Group across Linfox Logistics' Asia Pacific operations.

Laurie has responsibility for Human Resources, Organisational and People Development, Industrial Relations, Workplace Safety, Operational Training and Compliance for the Logistics Group, as well as for Corporate Communications and the Sustainability functions.

Laurie has extensive experience in Human Resources, Operations and Employee Relations. His career spans more than 25 years and includes work at some of Australia's leading blue chip enterprises including; Qantas, Hawker De Havilland, Mayne Nickless and Aussie Home Loans.

Laurie has in-depth knowledge of employee and industrial relations and the development of Enterprise Bargaining Agreements. He has worked for Linfox for over ten years in various roles.

Laurie holds a Graduate Diploma of Labour Relations and the Law and a Diploma of Law at Sydney University in New South Wales.

His interests include golf, world news and history.