

High Security Goods

“Linfox have helped us raise our margins and cut our operating costs in specific channels.”

Linfox develops secure supply chain solutions that protect high value ‘tradable’ goods, including alcoholic beverages, pharmaceuticals and tobacco. We bring customers together with common security requirements to share resources, reduce overheads and mitigate risks in an environment of mutual commitment and respect.

Our services

Security

- Specialist security personnel
- Security procedures and reviews
- Vending machine services
- Network design and audits

Warehouse management

- Labour saving initiatives such as pick to light, SAP order cubing and labelling system
- Inventory management and product batch tracking via Warehouse Management System

Transport management

- Asset utilisation initiatives based on route optimisation

Mobile technology

- Remote data capture
- Vehicle Security monitoring including GPS tracking
- Order track and trace
- Electronic Proof of Delivery signature capture

Why Linfox?

Supply chain strategy alignment

- A dedicated Supply Chain Solutions Design team.
- Lowest risk for customers and their market share.

Adaptive and agile solution

- Proven flexibility to different markets and customer channels.

SAP technology with superior in-house skills

- Ability to fully integrate with SAP.
- Proven operational effectiveness.
- Lowest technology and commercial risk.

Solutions that enable supply chain and marketing strategies

- Ability to adapt the existing field data capture for customer, marketing and sales analytics.
- Proven flexibility to different markets and customer channels.
- Highly configurable to new or evolving business

Our year at a glance

- 4.8 million kilometres
- 436,000 customer drops
- $1 billion non-cash payments

Linfox implements new electronic/physical security installations that meet industry standards including:

- AS 2201.1.2.3.4.5
- AS/NZS 3000
- AS/NZS 3016
- AS/ANZ 3809
- AS/ANZ 3749
- AS 4421