

Linfox provides sophisticated logistics services to some of the world's largest companies across various industry sectors. Our Business Units include Consumer and Healthcare Group, Retail, Resources and Industrial, Intermodal, Government and Defence, BevChain and New Zealand.

Our commitment

At Linfox, we lead the market in safety, compliance and chain of responsibility through our commitment to Vision Zero. We care for all our people, customers and the communities in which we operate.

Through strong leadership we will work together to find solutions to eliminate hazards, manage risk and prevent injuries.

We are one team working towards a common goal. We hold each other accountable for safety, including ourselves.

Scope

This policy applies to all Linfox workers, agency employees, contractors and visitors.

Our actions

To Be Safer, we will:

- develop our people to work safely and promote health and wellbeing.
- celebrate our milestones and reward safety achievements within our business.
- consult with our people when making decisions or proposing changes in safety matters and involve our people in developing risk solutions.
- hold our people accountable for their actions and behaviours.
- encourage a reporting culture.
- take responsibility for safety by developing a consultative approach with our customers and the communities in which we operate.
- disseminate safety and health information to our people and our customers.
- identify, assess, manage and thoroughly investigate our safety risks and opportunities.
- develop, implement, monitor and review our safety standards and management systems.
- comply with our legislative obligations and industry standards.
- regularly monitor our progress towards Vision Zero.
- strive to continually improve our safety practices.

Mark Mazurek

Mark Mazurek
CEO Linfox Logistics
Australia & New Zealand

