

Celebrating a logistics legend

Dear Lindsay,

You founded this great Australian business on strong values, hard work and a promise to deliver for your customers.

These foundations have earned the ongoing trust of some of Australia's biggest brands.

Your commitment to people, customers and communities is an inspiration to us all, and makes us proud to work at Linfox.

Happy 85th Birthday.

CEO Linfox Logistics Australia and New Zealand

Mark Mazurek

Happy 85th birthday Lindsay Fox!

Lindsay Fox AC is the force behind the Linfox story; one of passion and grit that has resulted in enduring partnerships. It all started with one man and a truck in 1956. Since then, Lindsay and the Fox family have led the business through extraordinary growth and earned long-term success. Today, Linfox employs more than 24,000 team members across 10 countries and delivers for some of the most iconic brands and organisations in the world.

Lindsay celebrated his 85th birthday on 19 April, 2022.

1956

Lindsay starts his business at age 19 carting coal in winter and soft drinks in summer.

1958

Linfox has 10 trucks working on the Schweppes contract.

1961

Tyre manufacturer Dunlop signs its first contract with Linfox.

1963

Linfox introduces one grocery truck on a three month trial with GJ Coles and Coy (today known as Coles).

1984

Operations commence in China, the first foray into Asia.

1980

Linfox delivers for 40 of Australia's top 100 companies with 1000+ vehicles.

1968

Linfox wins the Courage Brewery contract, taking the fleet from 30 to 60 trucks.

1989

Operations commence in New Zealand.

Mid

Linfox begins transporting for Woolworths.

Mid 1970s

BP signs its first contract with Linfox to deliver heating oil.

1992

Lindsay is appointed as an Officer of the Order of Australia (AO) in the Australia Dav Honours List

1993

Peter Fox is appointed Executive Chairman of Linfox Logistics.

1997

Linfox purchases Avalon Airport.

1998

Linfox is awarded the contract for the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney.

2003

Linfox purchases Mayne Logistics and Armaguard.

Linfox celebrates

2020

Linfox keeps essential goods moving through bushfires and the COVID-19 pandemic.

2006

BevChain establishes as a joint venture with Lion Nathan.

2008

Lindsay is appointed as a Companion of the Order of Australia (AC) for his continued service to the transport and logistics industry and community.

2016

60 years of operation.

2017

acquires full ownership of

BevChain

Linfox

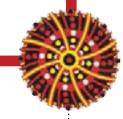

2013

Linfox is awarded the Australian Defence Force contract.

Linfox assists recovery operations following the Queensland floods.

2009

Linfox signs the Australian Employment Covenant to help break the cycle of poverty in Indigenous Australia.

Lindsay Fox named Patron of industry mental health body Healthy Heads in Trucks & Sheds, with Linfox a founding member.

Linfox launches the first of several electric vehicles for major customers across metropolitan routes.

Lindsay and wife Paula donate $100m to the National Gallery of Victoria for The Fox: NGV Contemporary.

